By ARGUS CENTOCULI, Inſpector-General of Great-Britain.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1748. [N°. 226.]

Canis latrat.

NOW in the Dead of the long Vacation, when Buſineſs ſeems to ſubſide abroad as well as at home, and that nothing tranſpires at the City of Peace worth the communicating; except that the great Arbitrators of the Affairs of Europe are leiſuring away their Time in mock Encampments upon the Hill, and playing at Leap-Frog down into the Vale again, 'till they hear of the Reſtitution of Cape Bn, ſo as to be ready to reſume their Functions, and ſtart up another Wild-Gooſe Chace for four or five Months further Diverſion.—I ſay, I will take the Opportunity of this Intermiſſion to uſher into the World ſome Letters from my minor Correſpondents, as they fall into my Hand.

To the AUTHOR, &c.

SIR,

THE Writer of the Jack Journal and you ſeem to have fallen foul on one another in the Dark laſt Saturday; for I believe neither of you could divine what the other would treat upon for the Day: But I think he has diſtinguiſhed you more capitally than you have him, as you are the chief Object of his Paper; whereas, the Notice you take of him, is only en paſſant, and rather leſs in his Capacity of Informer than as an Author. You have tranſfer'd him from his Partnerſhip in Punch at Panton-ſtreet, to a Share in Merry-Andrew in Bartholomew-Fair. As he ſeems to have forgot the Smart of the Stripes you beſtowed upon him ſome Time ſince, and barks at you again, tho' at a more cautious Diſtance, I think it very proper you ſhould new laſh your Whip, and ſmack it a little about to prevent too near an Approach to your Horſe's Heel, which, tho' he can't reach your own, he may catch at, ſo as to occaſion you ſome Trouble to keep your Seat; for you well know it is the Quality of Curs to ſteal in at the Heel: Beware therefore of Trotplaid.

As he has run thro' all the Bookſellers in the Capacity of an Hackney Scribbler, and taken a Pledge of Remembrance from each of them, he has got Hire and Pay ſo much in his Head, that he compliments all Authors in that Strain, and would fain bring them under the ſame Denomination with himſelf, like the curtailed Fox in the Fable, and accoſts his Betters as the Farrier did Dr. Ratcliffe. This is not owing ſo much to Art as to downright Simplicity, with a little natural Tincture of Vanity attending it; for in his Opinion, there is no Difference between a poor contemptible Wretch, that wrote Diſſertations at a Crown a-piece for a late DAMN'D Paper called the CHAMPION, and an Author who writes for the public Good, without any ſordid View of Gain, independent of the Trade and all other Mercenaries. The poor Proſtitute places a Hireling, retained at weekly Wages by the excellent Solomon Slender againſt the Preſs, in the ſame Light as the generous Volunteer that defends it, and prefers a Malefactor's dirty Biographer to the Writer of the Life of a Marlborough or Eugene.

If he boaſts of having a Talent for Humour, let his laſt Jack-Journal witneſs againſt him, where he makes a very poor Attempt towards it: How flat, how mean, and low? He appears too full of Spleen to conduct that Vein; his bad, immoral Heart overflows with too much Gall for the Serenity of Humour, and yet this Man paſſed once as a kind of Humouriſt; but ſince he rouſed your Pen to diſſect him, he has turned out a very old Woman, and by his own Hand proves himſelf to be the very Pretender you have defined him. You have detected his Ignorance in Grammar, his falſe Engliſh, and his Meanneſs of Language, more than once. You have alſo ſhewn his Unacquaintance, not only with Law itſelf, but with the very Terms of it, tho' he boaſts ſo loud of his Knowledge that way, and of his being to be brought to Bed ſoon of a Law-Book, begoten upon himſelf by the Notes of an old Judge, which is to be publiſhed at the ſame Time with Six Volumes of his Novels, ſpick and ſpan new, fronted with ſpecial Dedications. An odd ſort of an Author this! a kind of Jack of all-Trades! a Wou'd-be Humouriſt, a Farce-Maker, a Journal-Scribler, a mock Lawyer, a Novel-Framer, &c. &c. But I commit him to your Correction, and hope to find him a better Man when he comes out of your Hands.

SIR,

Your humble Servant,

PRIMONIDES.

This is the firſt Time I ever heard of the learned Trotplaid's dabling in Law-Ink, for tho' I was not ignorant of his being one of thoſe who ſtole into the Profeſſion; yet I always thought him as guiltleſs of Improvement and even of reading that way, as he is of true Wit and Humour in his Novels. To underſtand Law-Notes requires ſome Judgement in the Profeſſion, and ſuch Notes in the Hands of Ignorance is like the Jewel under the Feet of the Dunghill-Cock. If Trotplaid can read them, it is as much as he can do, for I may venture to aſſert he is not properly qualify'd to underſtand them. When he aims at Wit 'tis in ſo low a Way as rather to diſguſt than pleaſe, and inſtead of furniſhing us with Humour, he only beats about for it: This is too flat, and that too ludicrous; both indigeſted and imperfect. Tho' I could never conceive a good Opinion of him, as an Author any way, and perhaps may never dip into his Novels; yet methinks I long to ſee how he humours a Point of Law, and what witleſs Turns he gives a Caſe. As that kind of Writing is very dull and inſipid, perhaps Trotplaid's maſterly Pen may enliven it with ſuch agreeable Puns and Conundrums, as may render it as palatable to the Students in our Inns of Court, as his Scenes of Punch was to his Audience in Panton-ſtreet; and were I worthy to recommend a Name to his Law-Book, it ſhould be called Punch's Reports humouriz'd.

A. C.

The following Correſpondent ſeems to be an odd ſort of Fellow, who, forgeting the Reſpect due to my Gravity, familiarizes himſelf a little too much with me.

SIR,

ARGUS CENTOCULI, Inſpector-General of Great-Britain!—A Name of great Antiquity I own, whatever the Office may be. Well,—but who gave you that Name? and who gave you that Commiſſion?—Why, verily, no leſs a God-Father in the one, and no leſs a Benefactor in the other, than yourſelf! But pray, what Sallary have you annexed to your Office?—Honour, you'll ſay: A very ſubſtantial Appendage truly! It brings nothing in, and ſells for very little, except at a certain Houſe within the Confines of Weſtminſter; and as you are not free of that Market, I doubt it will remain a Drug upon your Hands without Doors. Tho' you ſhould derive your Pedigree from your old Nameſake in the Days of Jupiter and Juno, I ſee no great Reaſon you have to boaſt of your Anceſtor; for he was no more than a Cowkeeper, and was killed by the Hands of a Thief. Therefore your Lineage is not ſo very honourable as you may imagine, notwithſtanding your Hundred Eyes and your Peacock Genealogy; for we read of no human Iſſue he left: But I have ſome Reaſon to believe you miſtake your Anceſtor, and that you come in a direct Line from one Argus a certain Domeſtic belonging to Ulyſſes. I am the more induced to fall in with this Opinion, becauſe you now and then betray a kind of Snarling, natural to that watchful Family. I think it is incumbent on you to clear up this Point, that we may know how to addreſs you properly.

Your humble Servant,

CANINIDES.

I would have this whimſical Correſpondent, who makes ſo free with my Name and Family, know, that tho' it does not appear to him that my great Anceſtor, Argus Centoculi, had human Iſſue, yet that is no Reaſon to conclude he had not a Son living at the Time of his Transformation, and—But why ſhould I trouble myſelf about clearing up what is not in Doubt. As to the Family of the Peacocks, I am not aſhamed to own my Affinity with them, as they are a People of Dignity and great Beaux. The Domeſtic of Ulyſſes and his Deſcendants, I doubt are endued with more Virtues than Caninides can boaſt of: Fidelity and Watchfulneſs are their proper Characteriſtics. See how Mr. Pope has, from Homer, celebrated the affectionate, grateful, old Creature; with which I ſhall conclude my Paper:

Thus near the Gates, conferring as they drew,
Argus, the Dog, his ancient Maſter knew:
He not unconſcious of the Voice and Tread,
Lifts to the Sound his Ear, and rears his Head:—
He knew his Lord, and ſtrove his Feet to meet,
In vain he ſtrove to crawl and kiſs his Feet;
Yet, all he could, his Tail, his Ears, his Eyes,
Salute his Maſter, and confeſs his Joys!——
The Dog, whom Fate had granted to behold
His Lord, when Twenty tedious Years had roll'd,
Takes a laſt Look, and, having ſeen him, dies;
So cloſ'd forever faithful Argus' Eyes.

On Saturday Morning at Four o'Clock died of a violent Fever, at his Houſe in Kew-Lane, the celebrated Mr. James Thomſon, Author of the Seaſons, &c. an honeſt Man, who has not left one Enemy behind him. His Abilities as a Writer, his Works ſufficiently witneſs to all the World, but the Goodneſs of his Heart, which overflowed with Benevolence, Humanity, univerſal Charity, and every amiable Virtue, was beſt known to thoſe who had the Happineſs of his Acquaintance; by every one of whom he was moſt tenderly beloved, and now moſt ſincerely and moſt deſervedly lamented.

Extract of a Letter from Stockport, dated Auguſt 27.

On the 23d of July we had here a prodigious Storm of Thunder and Lightning, with the moſt violent Rain ever ſeen, occaſioned by a Cloud burſting, which in two Hours Time raiſed our River fifteen or twenty Yards perpendicular, which has done incredible Damage, at leaſt 10000 l. by which ſeveral Families are ruined: It has deſtroy'd almoſt all the Corn on the River from Wayley Bridge for ſeveral Miles downwards, and not only ruined the Corn and Graſs, but the Land for ever. Several People loſt their Lives; ſeveral Houſes, Outhouſes, Corn-Mills, and all the Meal, &c. therein, Cloth-Mills, and other Buildings, were taken down; Abundance of fine Timber was carried down the River, Hay and a great many Sheep. Two Women, who were Sifters, were drowned in a little Rivulet, in which ordinarily there does not run more Water than would drown a Kitten. At Heaſield, a Pariſh Church about ſix Miles above, it waſhed the Church-Yard bare to the Rock, and took ſeveral People out of their Graves; ſo there were found next Day hung in Buſhes and Trees, a Corpſe in one Place, a Coffin in another, a Shroud in another. It has took down ſeveral Stone County and other Bridges, with all the Walls; and Fences, four Miles, and made a diſmal Deſtruction. We have had very bad Harveſt Weather hitherto, by which a deal of Corn is damaged, but now we have good Weather."

He pretends that he can neither ſpeak nor underſtand any Engliſh; yet is found to be a Perſon who kept a Chandler's Shop about four Years ago in Hounſditch, but having quitted that he is now ſuſpected to have got his Livelihood ſince by procuring Watches, Rings, &c. in a cheap, clandeſtine manner, to convey to his Correſpondents abroad.

On Saturday laſt Edward Hall, of Hartfield-Street, was committed to New Priſon by John Poulſon, Eſq; of Bow Street, Covent Garden, for uttering a large Quantity of falſe and counterfeited Halfpence, and on ſearching his Houſe, there were ſeveral Parcels found therein, and a Warant being granted by the aforeſaid Gentleman to apprehend his Wife, ſhe was taken up, and made a great Diſcovery againſt David Wright and Mary his Wife, and Anne Foſter, for coining and counterfeiting the ſame, and upon ſearching their Lodgings in Vinegar-Yard, Drury-Lane, were found divers Melting Pots, Filings, Tools, and ſeveral other Implements for carrying on that Practice; and after ſeveral Hours tedious Examination, David Wright was committed to the Gatehouſe, and Mary his Wife to Newgate, and Anne Foſter to Tothill-Fields Bridewell. It appeared they had carried on this Practice upwards of twenty Years, and are like to meet with their juſt Reward.

Two of them are in Cuſtody for the ſame but the Third made his Eſcape.

On Saturday Night about, Eight o'Clock, three Men dreſt like Sailors, attacked a Gentleman in Lemon-Street, Goodman's Fields, and puſhing him into a narrow Alley, ſtript him of his Watch, Money, Shoe and Knee Buckles, and Cloaths: but being diſcovered in the Action by a Child, who called ſome People to the Gentleman's Aſſiſtance, the Rogues were immediately taken.

He was immediately dreſſed by a Surgeon, and afterwards carried to St. Bartholomew's Hoſpital, where he languiſhed till Monday Morning, and then died. The Perſon that gave the Blow has ſince abſconded.

Laſt Week a Waggon, laden with Cheeſe, returning from Newbury Fair to Henly upon Thames, overturned on Carket Green, by the breaking of the Axle tree; by which the Waggoner, and a Carpenter who was riding in the Waggon, were killed on the Spot.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Middlewych in Cheſhire, Auguſt 28. There is riſen up in this Country a great Doctreſs, an Old Woman, who is reſorted to by People of all Ranks and Degrees, to be cured of all Diſeaſes; ſhe lives four Miles from hence, and has been in this great Fame about two Months; ſhe has ſeveral Hundred Patients in a Day out of all the Country round for thirty Miles: I went to ſee her Yeſterday, out of Curioſity, and believe there was near 600 People with her. I believe all the Country are gone mad, or rather fooliſh. The chief Thing ſhe cures with is faſting Spittle, and God bleſs you with Faith.

He was traced on Sunday Morning, when he was firſt miſſed, near a Mile by the Blood; and when he was fleed there appeared above 40 Cuts and Holes in his Skin. What ſhould exaſperate theſe Fellows to commit ſo barbarous an Action, is variouſly conjectured, but the Truth has not yet appeared.

"The young Cardinal York has excommunicated them all who ſtill retain the Name of Proteſtant: Two young Gentlemen ſaw him, and heard him read the Bull; a Taſk he weakly undertook without any neceſſity obliging him to it, whilſt his Catholick Brethren ridiculed him for his Officiouſneſs, as theſe Gentlemen declared to me. Dr. NELSON's Moſt Wonderful PANACEA, For CONFIRM'D VENEREAL LUES, and all the Relicks or Remains of it in the Blood,

Which it infallibly eradicates, tho' of ever ſo long ſtanding, it having been long experienced to be the only ſafe and ſure Remedy for that hateful Diſtemper, that was ever known or diſcovered.

IT curing ſo eaſily, and inſenſibly, as to any Diſorder it gives, Confinement it requires, or Suſpicion it occaſions, that it is admired and recommended by all that have taken it, for it neither purges, vomits, nor ſalivates, but cures by it's alterative, de-obſtruent, antivenereal Qualities; inſomuch that Children, and the weakeſt and moſt tender or crazy-conſtitutioned People, may take it at all Times of the Year, and go about with it as if they had taken nothing, as may likewiſe thoſe who have been brought near the Grave, by repeating unſucceſsful Salivations, or other violent, or too frequent Purgations, or Vomits; for it reſtores as well as c ears the Blood, of all the lurking poiſonous Taint and Mercury, tho' never ſo ſecretly lodg'd in the Body; whereforelet none of thoſe unfortunate People deſpair; but try it, and they will be comfortably convinc d of the Truth of what is here ſaid of it.

Perſons who are pox'd to the laſt Degree, their whole Maſs of Blood being contaminated, and have been told nothing but a Salivation would cure them, tho' they labour under tormenting Pains in the Head, Limbs, or Joints; or have Breakings out of Scabs, Blotches, Boils or Spots; or have Swellings, Nodes, Sores, or Ulcers, either in their Throat, Noſe, or elſewhere, with Wearineſs in their Limbs, Faintneſs and Weakneſs of the whole Body, &c. may entirely rely upon it, only that, according to the Degree of the Infection, they muſt take and continue it for a longer or ſhorter Time.

Such as have only ſome Relicks of the Diſeaſe, or but ſuſpect that their Blood has got a Smatch of the Taint, by ſome unuſual Uneaſineſſes about th m, which they now and then feel, either from ill managed Claps, or other doubtful Cures ſhould never venture to marry if they are ſingle, or meddle with their Wives if married, till they are ſure they are ſafe, as they moſt certainly will be, upon their only taking a Pot or two of it.

It is alſo exceeding pleaſant to take, as well as delightful in it's effects, and thoroughly cleanſes, nouriſhes and reſtores, the fouleſt, moſt weakened, and worn-out Conſtitution.

Price 5 s. the Tin-pot, prepared only by the Doctor abovesaid and left by him (Mr. Iſted, Bookſeller, at the Golden Ball in Fleetſtreet, being dead) with Mr. Corbet, Bookſeller, at Addiſon's Head oppoſite St. Dunſtan's Church, Fleetſtreet; and at Mr. Cook's, under the Royal Exchange; where it may be had by any Meſſenger, ſteady ſealed up with Directions how to take it, by only asking for 2 s. Pot of the PANACEA.

GLEETS and SEMINAL WEAKNESSES,

SO deſtructive to the Conſtitution, and ruinous not only to the unhappy Individual labouring under them, by draining away the Radical Nouriture or very Eſſence of Life, nt inducing Conſumptions, Nervous Diſorders, &c. but to poſterity alſo, inaſmuch as thoſe afflicted with ſuch Gleetings, if not wholly diſabled, as very many are, from propagating their ſpecies, are yet render'd incapable of begetting any other than puny, noticable, and ſhort liv'd Iſſue.

Theſe waſting Gleetings, occaſion'd by Self poliution, exceſſive Venery, ſevere Purging for Venereal Injuries, or by violent Strains, &c. and which have been deem'd by almoſt all Phyſicians and Surgeons to be ſo very difficult to overcome, are now ſo certainly known to be directly, and in a manner at once perfectly cur'd by the Grand Reſtorative Balſamick Electuary, that no one, how bad ſoever, need deſpair of being entirely ſet to Rights by it in a few Days.

It is from this its moſt extraordinary Efficacy, that ſo many Practitioners in Town and Country now ſend for it for their Patients, as finding it to be the only ſure and infallible Remedy that can be ſafely rely'd upon in thoſe Caſes. This Grand Medicine is to be had only by the Author's Appointment, at Mr. Radford's Toy-ſhop, at the Roſe and Crown, againſt St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, London, at 6 s. a Pot, ſeal'd up, with a Book of Inſtructions, highly neceſſary to be read by all Perſons whoever were afflicted with any Diſorder of the Seminal Veſſels or neighbouring Parts.

Note, Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of Balſamick Electuary.

No Letters anſwer'd unleſs Poſt-paid.

For the Venereal Disease.

THE ſhorteſt, ſafe, and regular Cure, this Day in the World, from the ſlighteſt Infection to the moſt inveterate Degree of it, by a Medicine as pleaſant to take, and as eaſy in its Operation as it is effectual in its Cure; ſo that the unfortunate Patient gets ſuddenly and ſurprizingly well, without Diſguſt to his Palate, the leaſt Diſorder of Body, or any Confinement whatever. This is that great Remedy, now ſo well known and long experienced to be truly infallible, and is the Grand ANTI-SYPHILITICON that Radcliffe and Garth uſed to ſay would totally extirpate the Venereal Diſeaſe from the Face of the Earth, were it but univerſally known, and properly taken. Freſh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their cruel attendant Symptoms, it preſently cures; and if taken in Time, even prevents their taking Place. It is a ſafe, gentle, and pleaſant Family Purge, even for Children as well as grown Perſons, in all Caſes where Purging is neceſſary; nor can the deepeſt Scurvy, Rheumatiſm, Gout, Evil, or Leproſy, ſtand before it, but are pleaſantly cured and thoroughly extirpated by it, as well as the higheſt and moſt inveterate State of the confirmed Venereal Diſeaſe, which, with all its moſt raging Symptoms, it ſoon eradicates, reſtoring Health, Strength, and Vigor to the Body. Thoſe who once take it, will never have recourſe to any Thing elſe.

One Pot in moſt Caſes is ſufficient for a Cure, and can only be had at Mr. Radford's Toyſhop, at the Roſe and Crown againſt St Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, at 6s. a Pot, ſealed up with a Book of Inſtructions, in which all Perſons may fully underſtand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poiſon is rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.

No Letters anſwered unleſs Poſt-paid.

The moſt wonderful cleanſing and ſtrengthning Drops for all Sorts of Gleets, and Seminal Weakneſſes and Imbecilities of the Generative Parts and Faculties, preventing Miſcarriages in Women; and to cleanſe and ſtrengthen the Reins, Kidnies and Bladder, cure weak Backs, Stranguries, Gravel, and Stoppage of the Urine, and for which it has gained ſuch Repute, that near 20000 Bottles have been ſold ſince April 1734, that they were firſt publiſh'd.

THESE incomparable Drops, which for the abovelaid Diſorders are not to be equall'd in the whole Art of Medicine, were preſcrib'd by the Late Dr. Ratcliffe, for a certain noble Lord, who for a long Time had been vex'd with an old Gonnate Gleet and Weakneſs, of which he was cured by them, in a few Days, beyond all Expectation, after he had been harraſs'd with Electuaries, Boluſſes, Pills, Potions, Injections, and a hundred other Medicines, for many Months together in vain.

The Apothecary who prepared them for him according to the Doctor's Preſcription (which he has ſtill upon his File) has made Uſe of them ever ſince to Numbers of People in the very worſt of Gleets, ſeminal and genital Imbecilities and Intertilities, Pains in the Back and Reins, Diſorders of the Urine and Gravel, &c. with the utmoſt Succeſs and Safety, as alſo in all Weakneſſes from Strains, as well as Venereal Relicts, exceſſive Coition, Self Pollution, ſeminal Emiſſions in Sleep, Falls, Blows, Wrenches, and the like, in both Sexes.

And as they have never once failed him, even in Caſes thought to be incurable, he now, for general Good, has made them publick: And that the meaner Sort of People might partake of the Benefit of ſo divine a Remedy as well as the Rich, he has put them up in Bottles of but 3 s 6d each, tho' for the Excellency of their Effects they are worth their Weight in Gold, more eſpecially as one Bottle of them generally Cures, even in the moſt draining Gleets, and grievous Relaxations and Weakneſſes of the Seminals and Genitals, as alſo of the Back and Reins, that are.

Nor can there be prepared, by any Art or Skill, a more cleanſing and healing, or a more ſtrengthening and invigorating Medicine, or one that can more effectually cure Impotency, or promote Fertility, than this, as every one that but once tries it will ſay, by their ſoon finding the Difference between this and other Remedies; for it will do more in one Day towards reſtoring in theſe Weakneſſes than any others can in ten, and is of ſo corroborating a Nature that it may be entirely rely'd upon for curing perfectly and firmly, without Fear of Relapſe, even in the tenderſt Conſtitutions, which can hardly be ſaid of any other Medicine; and it is withal ſo elegantly pleaſant to the Palate, and ſo agreeable to the Stomach that the niceſt Perſon is delighted with it.

Mr Weſt, Goldſmith, who us'd to ſell theſe Drops being dead, they are now Sold only by his Son-in Law, Mr Johnſon, a Baker, at the Seven Stars, in Vere-ſtreet, near Clare-Market, ſealed up, with Directions, for any Meſſenger upon asking only for a Bottle of Drops, and paying 3 s 6 d.

The only Short and Infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived to the highest or most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without any sensible Evacuation, or the least Purging, which, by an unaccountable Mistake, is Generally Advised, altho' always found rather to encrease and confirm the Scurvy than cure it by the so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS.

WHICH, without the least Trouble, Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, do at once strike at the true Cause of the Scurvy and entirely destroy it, and all Scorbutick Humors and effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and so all who take them in Three Days Time are convinced; for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, and directly wear the whole Habit from all Spots Blotches, black and blue Marks, Pimples, foul Eruptions or Breaking out. Weakness of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy smites, and often lies concealed under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.

And for Strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Foods, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages, (whence proceed Head-Aches, Vapours, and other Indispositions) no Bitters, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, insomuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearances, they effectually and directly cure the Green-Sickness in Virgins, Worms, of all Kinds in Young or Old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases which are chiefly occasioned by indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Diseases.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and as soon as taken, make the Patient pleasantly lightsome, brisk and vigorous to Admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a sound and healthful State of Body.

But the great Reputation these so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS have so universally gain'd among Persons of Eminence, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humors, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, some under the same, and others under other Names, be careful therefore not to be deceived, but be sure to have the Right, which, by the Author's special Appointment are to be had, only at the Gentlewoman's at the two blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, at 3s. 6d a bottle, with Directions.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal injuries, virulent Gleets, Pollutions, or any other Cause whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain that they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, a Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption must frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such therefore who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Disagreeable Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe and speedy Cure, which these most scarcely may, by the taking only a small Quantity of a transparent balsamick Restorative Electuary, now published for the general good, after having for many Years in private Practice seen the most inveterate once to speedily cure the most stubborn Gleets, even in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels and Urinary Passages, which it almost instantly eases, bringing to right, and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent Balsamick Restorative Electuary is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative to all Weakness and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels, in an incredible Degree, insomuch that to any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it to their great Satisfaction, that they will be most agreeably surprised at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly answer with such a Safe, Speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been try'd in vain; too much cannot be said in Praise of it, and this all who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6s. a Pot, dear for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and be the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will be compleat Master of his own Case, and perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness be is afflicted with succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the foul Disease is entirely extirpated or not. Note, Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Bath-wick Electuary. No Letters answer'd, unless Post paid.

For the EYES,

The so much fam'd CHYMICAL LIQUOR,

WHICH at once infallibly cures all Inflammation, Bloodshot-Soreness, and Weakness of the EYES, Defluxions of sharp Humours Dimness of Sight, Specks, Films, or beginning Cataracts and that after all other Means have fail'd, and without causing the least Trouble or Uneasiness in using.

It directly heals and cures all Manner of Soreness of the Eyes in children or grown Persons, tho' of many Years standing, be it either of the dry, itching and smarting Kind, or most Rheumy or Watering, and whether proceeding from the Evil, or any other Distemper.

It effectually takes away all Specks, Films, or incipient Cataracts to Admiration, as also all Flies, or Gnats, that seem to swim before the Sight; it wonderfully strengthens the Optick Nerves, comforts the Eyes; immediately removes all Dazzling and Dimness, clearing the Sight, and infallibly preserving it strong and good to exceeding old Age.

Hundreds who were so very dim-sighted for some Years, as scarcely able to distinguish any thing, and imagin'd their Age to be the occasion, have been perfectly and almost instantly cured by it, so as to read the smallest Print without Spectacles; and for Opthalmies or Sore, Bloodshot, or Rheumy Eyes, no Medicine upon Earth can come near it, Thousands of Men, Women, and Children, have been cured by it of the very worst sort almost upon the Spot, and Blindness been prevented in Abundance, who had tried all other Remedies in vain, insomuch that it may be almost accounted a miraculous Remedy.

No Family ought to be without it, nor ever will, after they have had but one Day's Experience of its admirable Efficacy.

It is to be had only by the Author's Appointment, at the Gentlewoman's at the Two Blue Posts in Hay-on-Yard in the Minories London, at 3s. 6d. Bottle with printed Directions.

The So-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHICH in a few Days infallibly cure Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Vapours in Women, so as never to return again, be they ever so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual, and that by immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as remedying the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Rise from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food, whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, ill Fumes, sour Belchings, Cholick, and Uneasiness in the Bowels, which Crudities offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts affect the Head and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troublesome Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears and the deepest Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, flushing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirits and Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wandering Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other almost innumerable and grievous Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms in their sharpest Paroxysms, these so much fam'd and most pleasant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the most valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectifying the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle, and, of course, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and chearful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours, are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as the many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for three Days only, will be sensible they are absolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange, in Cornhill, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions at large.

ANTI-SIPHYLICON.

THE only short and most infallible CURE in the Universe for the Venereal Disease from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and to as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks, on one Hand, or a seminal Gleet, or Weakness, to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Illness, attended with nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings-out, and all other the most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inunctions, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy, or true Venereal Antidote in the World, and this some Thousands have, to their great Joy, experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement, but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplished, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury may, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it, Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and effectual Manner.

All such, likewise, as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may, by a few Doses of it, entirely free themselves from all Suspicions of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and, on that Account, in all Scorbutick, Scrophulous, and even Leprous Eruptions, or Foulnesses of the Skin, or glandulous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose than any other Medicine, yet known, can by ten.

The Price of this most noble Anti-Siphylicon is but six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient, in most Cases, to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown, against St. Clement's Church-yard, in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is entirely rooted out of their Bodies. Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy. No Letters answer'd, unless Post-paid.

To Persons of either Sex,

Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other Nervous Decays.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES, PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISORDERS so frequent as of late they have been, nor have the usual Remedies been found adequate to those pertinacious Distempers: This occasion'd a Physician, who employed his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palsy, and all other Nervous Complaints now reigning, which, after he had experienced on vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprizing Success even so as infallibly to cure by it the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Disorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that so those labouring under these miserable Ailments might know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such Ease and Pleasure (a few Drops of it being a Dose, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almost incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only demonstrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients soon finds all Numbness, Deadness, and shaking, or Relolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulsive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vanish and return no more, and this, though these Diseases have been of many Years standing, and whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Living, hard drinking, or any other Cause; for it performs all that can be wished for in Nervous Cases, creates an Appetite, expells Wind, rectifies the Digestion, occasions laudable Chyle, attenuates the Blood and Juices, causes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Vessels, revives and increases the Spirits, warms, comforts, strengthens, and replenishes the Brain and whole Nervous System, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs restored to their pristine Steadiness and Strength, and the Palsy and all Paralitick Disorders and Nervous Decays suddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themselves, and all about them.

This sovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be sold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.
